Photographer in the library Thursday, May 17th

- A photographer is coming to the library during the morning of Thursday 17th May to take photographs of people using the library. The photos may then be included in a report for the Scottish Government by the Scottish Library and Information Council. The school will also be given copies of the photos to use.
- If you are going to be visiting the library at break time on Thursday and would be happy to have your photo taken, can you please let Helen Muir know in advance so that she can check with the school office that we have permission in place for this.
