

Lasswade High School Child Protection, Safeguarding and Wellbeing Policy

This policy applies to all education staff and volunteers.

For the purpose of this policy and associated procedures a child is generally recognised as someone under the age of 18 years. Education staff and volunteers will work together to embrace the difference and diversity and respect the rights of children and young people.

We are committed to practice in a way that protects all children and young people and fully adhere to the processes and procedures contained within Edinburgh and Lothian's Inter-Agency Child Protection Procedures 2023 Child protection | Report a child at risk | Midlothian Council (The procedures can be found at the bottom of this page the link take you too).

The purpose of this policy is;

- to protect children and young people attendingSchool/Nursery (associated clubs that are attached to school – after school/active schools etc)
- to provide staff and volunteers with the overarching principles that guide our approach to safeguarding and child protection;

Staff at Lasswade High School believe that a child or young person should never experience harm or abuse of any kind. We have a responsibility to promote the welfare and wellbeing of all children and young people and to keep them safe.

Legal Framework

This policy has been drawn up on the basis of law and guidance that seeks to protect children, namely:

- National Guidance for Child Protection (2021) National Guidance for Child Protection in Scotland 2021 - updated 2023 - gov.scot \(www.gov.scot\)
- Inter-agency Child Protection Procedures – Edinburgh and the Lothian's (2023)

This policy should be read alongside our policies and procedures on:

- The Promise, Equalities, Administration of Medication, Attendance, Whistle Blowing, Managing Allegations against staff and in line with the Child Poverty Action Plan.

We recognise that:

- The welfare of the child is paramount, as enshrined in The Children (Scotland) Act 1995
- All children, regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity, have a right to equal protection from all types of harm and abuse.
- Some children are additionally vulnerable because of the impact of previous experiences, their level of dependency, communication needs or other issues.
- Working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare and wellbeing.

We will seek to keep children and young people safe by:

- Valuing them, listening to and respecting them
- Appointing a Designated Member of Staff for Safeguarding and Child Protection for the school along with a depute
- Adopting the processes and procedures contained within Edinburgh and Lothian's Inter-Agency Child Protection Procedures
- Taking action to protect children at the earliest appropriate time
- Plan and intervention with an understanding of trauma informed practice
- Share information timely
- Protecting children's rights
- Developing and implementing an effective e-safety policy and related procedures
- Providing effective management for Education staff and volunteers through training, support and quality assurance measures
- Recruiting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made
- Recording and storing information professionally and securely
- Using our procedures to share concerns and relevant information with agency's who need to know, and involving children, young people, parents, families and carers appropriately.
- Using our procedures to manage any allegations against staff and volunteers appropriately
- Creating and maintaining an anti-bullying environment and ensuring that we have a policy and procedure to help us deal effectively with any bullying that does arise

- Ensuring that we have effective complaints and whistle blowing measures in place
- Ensuring that we provide a safe physical environment for our children, young people, staff and volunteers, by applying health and safety measures in accordance with the law and regulatory guidance
- Sharing information about safeguarding and good practice with children, their families, staff and volunteers via leaflets, posters, one to one discussions
